

Section H: Revenue Streams Impact

Revenue Streams	Outreach	Testing	Linkages
<input type="checkbox"/> CDC	x	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> Agencies Community-Based	x	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> Department of Justice	x		x
<input type="checkbox"/> Department of Labor	x		x
<input type="checkbox"/> Health Insurance Networks		x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> HRSA	x	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> Local Health Depts	x	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> Medical Providers			x
<input type="checkbox"/> NIH	x	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> Pharmacy Chains	x		x
<input type="checkbox"/> Pharmaceuticals	x	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> Rapid Point of Care Developers		x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> SAMHSA	x	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> State Health Depts	x	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> Universities	x	x
<input type="checkbox"/> Urgent Care Clinics			x

Our revenue streams are designed to make a self-sustaining and the ability to adapt to fast growing changes in technology and community trends.

1. Outreach Management System can sustain itself without external support
 - a. Initial Funding supporting implementation
 - b. Vendor Contracts (i.e. Pharmaceuticals, Insurance, Pharmacies, federal partners)
2. OMS will be self-sustaining in a fraction of time in comparison to
 - a. University System
 - b. Government Agency
 - c. Traditional Big-Box Agencies